Matt Fischer moved to accept Resolutions 2024-1, 2024-2, 2024-3, to adopt the amended 2024 budget, appropriate 2024 sums, and set the mill levy for 2024 respectively. The motion was seconded by Bill Remien. With no further discussion, the motion passed unanimously.

NEW BUSINESS

As required, Matt Fischer will file the mill levy with the County and submit the 2024 budget to DOLA and file the Application of Exemption from Audit.

The Transparency Notice due January 15th will be on LLMD website and copied to DOLA and SDA

Road Maintenance: we will continue to monitor Loma Linda roads and observe any needed changes

SDA membership: $360 payment made by Matt Fischer, to be reimbursed, in order to procure 25% timely payment discount

Neighborhood Safety/Security

-Additional 10 MPH sign needs to be added to the curve sign at Loma Linda & Saddleback

-One of the 4 trees planted by the mailboxes was cut down sometime around Christmas. The incident was reported to the Sheriff's department. The HOA will discuss the installation of a security camera. A discussion ensued regarding the posting of a sign at the entrance to Loma Linda to alert that the subdivision is under video surveillance as many homeowners have security cameras at their residences. After discussion, Barb Hanrahan moved to purchase a yellow Security Notice, seconded by Rick Sautel. The motion was amended by Matt Fischer to include the purchase of two video surveillance signs for 2 locations and a 10 MPH sign and seconded by Rick Sautel. The motion passed unanimously. Al Myatt suggested and will research putting a GPS tracker on the other 3 trees.

2024 Calendar: Matt Fischer will update
